MOUNTAIN MAJESTY

P. Yoder

The musical content of this overture is intended to portray the majesty and grandeur of mountain scenery. The opening tympani roll and the succeeding chord suggest the clouds rolling away to reveal the rugged outlines of a mountain range against the sky. The theme introduced by the cornet in the andante suggests the tranquility of the mountain landscape on a quiet day. The alternating brass and woodwind passages in the allegro represent the snow and rain of the various seasons. The chorale reflects the reverence and humility of mankind in the face of mighty works of nature.

ELSA'S PROCESSIONAL TO THE CATHEDRAL

From The Opera "Lohengrin"

Transcribed By
Richard Wagner

"ELSA'S PROCESSION TO THE CATHEDRAL," with its medieval color and pageantry, prefaces her betrothal to Lohengren, mystic knight of the Holy Grail, come to deliver the people of Brabant - Antwerp - from the Hungarian invader.

In the operatic presentation, large double chorus -representing the people of antwerp- add its song of solem praise to that of the orchestra. It is this music mystic, yet powerful, that we find Wagner striking out with those new and intense musical thoughts which we where to culminate in tristan, the ring, and parsifal. Not quite emancipated from the musical speech of his operatic contemporaries, one finds in the lohengrin score those unmistakable flights into musico-dramatic magnificence transcending all that preceded it in idion and musical adventure.
